

Department of Archaeology and Anthropology

OPEN DAY for Archaeology & Biological Anthropology – Thursday 25 February 2016
Programme of Events (TO BE CONFIRMED)

Time	Session	Venue
12:00 – 13:45	The Haddon Library will be open for informal visits if you wish as will the Museum of Archaeology & Anthropology	Haddon Library of Archaeology & Anthropology (entrance via Courtyard) Please find a student helper at the Downing Street entrance archway to take you or provide directions
13:40 – 14:00	Registration	McDonald Institute Coffee Room
14:00 – 14:45	Introduction to Archaeology & Anthropology	McDonald Institute Seminar Room
We will have a rolling programme of 3 x 45 minute sessions, dividing the attenders into 3 groups, A, B & C. Following the group sessions, there will be a communal tea and Q&A session on Admissions. The sessions in the Divisions contain talks and activities and Q&A sessions on each subject; student helpers will take the groups from one session to the next.
Time	Activity	Venue
14:45 – 15:30	Session 1	Group A - Archaeology – McDonald Institute Seminar Room Group B – Biological Anthropology – Wellcome Building, Fitzwilliam Street Group C – Museum of Archaeology & Anthropology, practical session and tour
15:35 – 16:20	Session 2	Group A – Museum of Archaeology & Anthropology, practical session and tour Group B – Archaeology – McDonald Institute Seminar Room Group C - Biological Anthropology – Wellcome Building, Fitzwilliam Street
16:25 – 17:10	Session 3	Group A – Biological Anthropology – Wellcome Building, Fitzwilliam Street Group B – Museum of Archaeology & Anthropology, practical session and tour Group C – Archaeology – McDonald Institute Seminar Room
17:10 – 18:00	Tea/coffee, cake and chat Running alongside the tea session there will also be a short formal session on Egyptology and Assyriology for those interested in these subjects. This will run from 17:15 so there is still time for tea and a chat with the others there. The Library will also still be open for visits during this period for anyone who missed out earlier.	McDonald Institute Coffee Room McDonald Institute Seminar Room (just across the entrance hall from the Coffee Room) Haddon Library – please ask a student helper for directions